Host bars are charged by consumption by tenths of bottles, except Wine and Champagne are charged by the open bottle and Keg beer. There will be no credit given for keg mishandling by member and/or their guests. All questions concerning a bar bill must be asked at the time of billing, otherwise adjustments cannot be made since empty bottles must be destroyed in accordance with the law. A copy of the Wine List is available upon request, with an additional selection of bottle wines which are available at current wine list prices. Specialty ordered wines, not normally carried by the Club, will be charge entirely to the host.
